

ACADEMIC WRITING I

LESSON WORKSHEET

MODULE 1: INTRODUCTION LESSON 1: OVERVIEW

REQUIREMENT FOR PASSING THIS COURSE IS TO WRITE _____ ESSAYS OF AN _____ STANDARD

In this class, you are going to write _____ essays:
_____ in the first semester, and _____ in the second semester.

You will usually write your essays _____ of class,
not in class.

You will also do some _____ outside of class. I encourage you to read as much as you can.

Why should you read? Because people learn to write by _____. Reading is the best way to improve your writing. That is true in your own language as well as in a foreign language

ACADEMIC WRITING I

What will you do in class? In class, you will

- a) Do some exercises in the _____, "Writers at Work".
- b) Do some _____ writing (I'll explain that later).
- c) Discuss and exchange your writing and reading with _____ .
- d) Listen and take _____ about mini-lectures I will give you on related topics from time to _____.

What will you do outside of class? Outside of class, you will

- a) Write your _____
- b) Read the sample essays in the _____
- c) Read other materials that I will give you.

There is a class blog which I will update every week.

<http://www.sheffnersweb.net/blogs/classblogs/kpu/>

The blog will show you

- a) What we did _____ each week, and
- b) What the _____ is.
- c) Sometimes, I will post videos or reading material on the class _____.

ACADEMIC WRITING I

Your first assignment, if you decide to continue this class is

a) Visit the class blog and leave a comment about today's class

- ① To leave a comment you need to type in your name (family name only) and an email address. Your email address will NOT be public. Your _____ WILL be public.
- ② All comments are moderated. That means I must approve them. So your comment will not appear _____ . Please be patient.

b) Send me an email briefly _____ yourself

kpu@sheffnersweb.net

To pass this class, you must

#1: Write (type) and hand in _____ essays of an _____ standard.

#2: In addition, do as many of the _____ exercises and _____ writings as you can..

#3: _____ as much in English as you can.

